

Sinclair Broadcasting is using its television stations to disguise right-wing smears against John Kerry as news. The so-called "documentary", called "Stolen Honor", was written, produced, and funded by extreme right-wing activists. Sinclair is using its reach to broadcast a blatantly political - - - and false message. And Sinclair and its executives have contributed thousands of dollars to Republican causes - and the CEO has given the maximum donation to Bush-Cheney 04.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
